LONDON Nov 6—It is possible that the Reichstadt may be summoned to meet at Versailles

Garibaldi Captured

BERLIN Nov 6—A dispatch from Dole says Garibaldi has been taken prisoner, with thirty Italian officers Garibaldi writes that there is no enthusiasm among the French They don't believe in victory

Rumors from Paris

PARIS Nov 6—The Bourse is buoyant on the armistice negotiations

The bombardment of Fort Mortier and New Brisach continues

Marseilles is tranquil

LONDON Nov 6—The Paris Provisional Government has published an address repeating the resolution of the Government to consent to no armistice prejudicing France

The great obstacle to peace is the disordered condition of Paris

TOURS Nov 6—A great number of addresses against the armistice have been received from various parts of France

BERLIN Nov 6—A dispatch says the armistice is proceeding favorably

The Armistice Broken Off

VERSAILLES, Nov 6—Thiers has received orders to break off negotiations for an armistice and leave the royal headquarters The Provisional Government has rejected the protocol agreed to by Thiers and Bismarck Previously they signified their approval The war goes on One reason is Bismarck's views on the cession of territory Another reason given is that the popular pressure is too strong for the French Ministry

No Fighting Lately

VERSAILLES Nov 7—Everything is quiet about here There has been no fighting for several days

Fort Mortier at New Brisach capitulated Sunday Fire had occurred inside which rendered it untenable 220 prisoners and 5 cannon were captured

Why the Armistice was Rejected

TOURS, Nov 7—A dispatch from Vendome says that the proposition for an armistice was unanimously refused by the leaders at Paris The government found reason in the refusal on the part of Prussia in the project to revictual the city and also because she accepted without reserve the scheme for allowing Alsace and Lorraine to vote for members of the Constituent Assembly The Paris government is generally supported in its action by people of all classes Three armies are forming in Paris Perfect order prevails there A universal uprising is expected It now seems to be the general impression that Prussia has only sought to gain time by seeming to admit the possibilities of an armistice in order that the troops lately investing Metz could come forward to Paris without danger

Confirmatory Dispatch from Washington

WASHINGTON, Nov 7—Dispatches from Versailles, announcing that Thiers had received orders from Paris to break off negotiations for an armistice and leave the Royal headquarters are confirmed by an official dispatch received in this city by the North German Minister

Later from Paris

TOURS Nov 7—Dates from Paris are up to yesterday Journals say there were further disorders the day following the riots The village of Auxon near Besancon, has been taken twice by the Prussians and retaken by the French

The Herald's correspondent says members of the Government in Paris reject the conditions of Bismarck because they are confident of the ability of France to finally repel invaders and save the honor of the country France is now in earnest and every day she grows stronger

No bombardment of the city will take place until the outer forts are taken, and the Prussians cannot take them

Bismarck says the first point of the armistice was not settled

The Tours journals charge the Prussians with continuing the war

Bismarck is charged with duplicity in negotiating for peace simply to give him time to bring up reinforcements

The French Government has ordered the arrest of Bazaine wherever found Changarnier says Bazaine is not guilty of treachery but incompetent to command a large army All the military movements were a sham

A Brussels dispatch says Bismarck says all he points as to armistice were agreed upon except revictualling Paris

Changarnier says France needs an Orleans Prince

The King to Return to Berlin

BERLIN Nov 6—The King is expected to return to Berlin on the 11th inst

General Dispatches.

TOURS, Nov 6—Advices from Paris state that Henri Rochefort has resigned his position on the Committee of Defence in consequence of a misunderstanding with the Government on the question of the election

The appointment of Gen Clanseret Thomas as Commander in Chief of the National Guards is confirmed

LONDON, Nov 6—The Prussians have occupied Severnnes and Morale They are at Hermon canal Skirmishes between the advanced posts of the army of Loire and the enemy are of daily occurrence

BERLIN, Nov 6—The St ats E z eye declares that relations between Belgium and Prussia are satisfactory

BRESACH VIA BERLIN, Nov 5—The bombardment of New Breseach and Fort Mortier continues The sorties of the garrison have been repulsed

DOLE Nov 6—Midnight—A series of engagements have occurred on the road from Dijon to St Jean The Prussians though using artillery and mitrailleurs, had, at 7 oclock P M , gained no ground Metz is occupied by Germans with artillery

New York World's Dispatches

LONDON Nov 6—The World's Versailles correspondent telegraphs that Thiers on Saturday had interviewed with Favre and Trochu at Ballanceunt Thiers reported an agreement to conclude with Bismarck which was approved by Favre and Trochu who expressed a belief of their ability to obtain the support of the population of Paris in carrying out the agreement of Friday's resolutions

The Provisional Government has published an address to the people of Paris respecting the resolution of the Government to consent to no armistice prejudicial to France and not embracing these provisions viz Free entrance and departure from Paris and other besieged cities revictualling the Capital and guarantees for an election in the whole of France, including Alsace and Lorraine It is believed at Versailles that it is designed to prevent disturbances at Paris until the Assembly meets

The disordered condition of Paris is a great obstacle in the way of peace Favre Thiers and Trochu had an interview at a French out post in which the subject was discussed in all its bearings It was stated that the Committee of National Defense was in favor of an armistice but was not sure of its ability to realize its wishes The Journal Officiel of Paris says on this point that such an armistice as proposed cannot prejudice France until it is definitely ratified at Paris

TOURS Nov 6—The Government here is giving the public no information on result of negotiations for an armistice The impression is that the Ministers are not anxious for an armistice. A great number of addresses against it have been received from all parts of France

VERSAILLES Nov 6—Thiers has received orders from Paris to break off negotiations for an armistice, and leave the Royal headquarters

The Provisional Government has finally rejected the protocol agreed upon by Thiers and Bismarck Previously they had signified their approval Thiers has received orders to notify Bismarck that his conditions could not be accepted and for him to return to the capital immediately The cause of the rupture is believed to be the persistence of Bismarck in insisting on guarantees for the cession of territory The war goes on

The Prussian Ambassador at London says the struggle will continue all winter

Dispatches received from Dole Beaune, Nogent Lerotrou Chateau Dun and Bretsey give particulars of marked successes by the Franc Tireurs

Why the Armistice Failed

LONDON Nov 7—The Times says the armistice turned on the question of free ingress and egress to and from Paris Thiers insisting and Bismarck refusing

During the conference between Thiers and Favre at Sevres the Paris forts maintained a steady fire on the place of interview The conference lasted over eight hours

The morning papers deplore the fatuity of Paris in declining overtures of peace

Dispatches from Tours

TOURS Nov 7—Dates from Paris yesterday are at hand The returns from all the precincts of the city show yeas 55 397 67 697 The municipal election resulted in the choice of Republican Mayor in nearly all arrondissements Four advocates of election by Communes are elected

As Prussians have shot numerous peasants the people of Louares are giving no quarter Accounts from various parts of France announce the entire population rising to expel the invaders

The Moniteur says Prussia as she would never consent to the revictualing of Paris now allows Alsace and Lorraine to vote on the election of delegates to the Constituent Assembly and assumes all responsibility for the continuance of the war

Prussia has refused the armistice All journals here expose the bitterest resentment at the duplicity of Bismarck who, pretending to negotiate for suspension of hostilities has gained time for the approach of reinforcements and warded off an attack from the army of the Loire, which could have taken the offensive with advantage

Dispatches via London

LONDON Nov 7—The French government has ordered the arrest of Bazaine wherever found

The troops in Paris have been divided into three armies one of which is called Garde Sedentaire.

The Hamburg Borsen Halle newspaper, says nine French vessels are in sight off west of Heligoland

A Prussian dispatch from Versailles reports that Theirs positively declined to conclude the armistice on the basis that the siege would continue for weeks He had no equivalent to offer for the preservation of Paris, which consequently could not be concluded

A correspondent sends from Versailles an account of an interview with Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern, who stated positively that while Germany was ready for peace, she would never pause a single instant in the war If pending negotiations for an armistice are not concluded before the guns are in position, bombardment will instantly commence

The New York Tribune's correspondent at Blois says the headquarters of the 16th Corps is at Marchenors The headquarters of the army of Loire yesterday were at Meer.

To-day the general headquarters were removed from Meer to a village two leagues nearer to Blois on the Orleans

Forty thousand Prussians are reported to have arrived from Metz to reinforce Gen Lsan

Paris dates of the 3d inst , says the volunteer movement started by Trochu had failed Less than one fifth of the numbers asked for refused The discipline does not improve

VERSAILLES Nov 7—A correspondent of the Tribune telegraphs from Versailles, of date, that Thiers has left Versailles for Tours In reality, the negotiating parties never approached the basis of an argument for an armistice The revictualing of Paris was insisted on from the beginning by Thiers but was steadily refused by Bismarck

BERNE Nov 7—Heavy cannonading was heard to day in the direction of Mund and Belfort

The French have burned the village of Meslors

Miscellaneous.

There are now 2 200 guns in position on the fortifications of Paris

The Paris Liberte asserts that Bismarck opposes the restoration of the Pope to temporal power

It is asserted that the French corvette De Sau has captured seven German vessels since the 4th of October

The Duke of Grammont writes to journals correcting the statement as to events preliminary to the war He complains of Lord Lyons the British Minister, for allowing Thiers to circulate reports uncontradicted

Vienna papers state that Prussia concurs with Russia concerning the revision of the treaty of 1856

Petitions numerously signed throughout Belgium have been presented to the Chambers asking that the seizure of Bonapartist agents in Belgium may be prohibited

The newly appointed Governor of Lorraine has ordered a census of all persons subject to military duty and prescribing severe penalties for any evasion

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov —The rain which lasted nearly twenty four hours has cleared up and the night is unusually fine

Kellogg Dean of the Faculty of the State University announces that a branch of the Mechanics Arts College has been established in San Francisco and the first lecture will be given Saturday evening next on "Geology and the coal resources of the Pacific coast," by Prof Joseph Lecount all are invited to attend free of charge and those who record themselves as regular attendants will be enrolled as students

The attendance at the funeral of the late A, P. Crittenden to day was large The bar especially being very largely represented

Mrs Fair appears entirely recovered from the hysteria manifested when first arrested

The line being down between this city and Los Angeles nothing is known here whether the steamer which went out from San Pedro with the Sheriff of that county to intercept the Colorado and arrest the Colonel who obtained a large sum in bonds from the Bank of California succeeded or not Much anxiety is felt here to know the result Should the steamer fail to connect steps have been taken to secure him at the Isthmus

NEVADA.

VIRGINIA Nov 6—Last evening two brothers George and Jonathan McElroy living on the divide quarrelled when George shot Jonathan in the head with a shotgun inflicting several wounds George was arrested

This afternoon a brakeman on the Virginia and Truckee railroad named Brown in attempting to jump off the track near Mexican Mill fell under the wheel of the hind car which passed over him cutting off his right arm and breaking his right leg in several places His recovery is doubtful

TRUCKEE Nov —Three men supposed to have been implicated in the Express robbery which occurred near Verdi last week have been arrested in Sierra valley One of the men was brought here last night Two more of the gang are reported captured near Reno

MONTANA

HELENA Nov 6—A dispatch from Fort Benton says a band of Indians ran off a number of horses from that post night before last

WYOMING.

CORINNE Nov 6—Immediately upon receipt of the information here Saturday evening of the robbery of the train near Independence a special train with police and horses started to the scene of the depredation where they arrived three hours later A glove bearing the name of Carr upon it was picked up on the spot Carr is a soldier and recently escaped from the guardhouse at Camp Halleck where he had been confined on a charge of killing a woman Later advices say the police are on the track of the robbers with a prospect of capturing them

UTAH.

CORINNE Nov —A dispatch from Salt Lake City states that in the District Court to day in the case of Eldridge and Clawson vs Union Pacific Railroad Company the jury rendered judgment in favor of plaintiffs for $10 000

The Musselshell valley has been abandoned. The Indians have always been troublesome in that direction but the abandonment of the valley is more attributable to the general movement of the trappers and prospectors to the Yellowstone than their hostility

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

Changarnier on Bazaine

BRUSSELS Nov 6—Correspondence dated Brussels 5th relates a conversation with General Changarnier The General declared that Bazaine was not guilty of treachery in the surrender at Metz He was not competent to command a large army Numbers bewildered him He could not move men could not operate forces He had no judgment no foresight

Incapacity of the French Government.

LONDON Nov 7—Paris dates to the 3d say that Rochefort resigned his seat in the Government because he agreed to an election to a commune

Trochu is utterly prostrated and incapable of doing business Recent reconnoissances were promenades in force Troops marched out of one gate kept well within the line of the forts and returned by another gate The grossest military offenses pass without punishment Government's systematic deceptions continue as before, publicly but privately they confess that the situation daily becomes more and more critical Trochu and other members are at loggerheads.

Every sortie yet made has resulted in an orderly retreat Of 300 000 National Guards perhaps 200 000 have guns that would fire without bursting

Bismarck's Terms.

The World's correspondent at Paris on the 5th writes that the terms insisted upon by Bismarck are announced as follows France should pledge herself either by the Assembly or the Government to pay eighty billion francs indemnity to consent to the Germans retaining all material captured to maintain a standing army of 150,000 men and agree to the annexation of Alsace and Lorraine to Bavaria, forming a neutral state, and not to oppose the purchase of Luxemburg by Prussia. When these terms were made known the people unanimously rejected them with cries of "No armistice! "Resist the Prussians till death!

Dispatches via London.

LONDON Nov 8—It is rumored that Gladstone will stand for London in the next Parliamentary election in the place of Baron Rothschild

LONDON, Nov 9—The latest balloon post from Paris brings a number of the Figaro of the 4th inst containing a letter from Flourens filling two columns and giving a description of the events occurring on the 31st of October. The arrest of members of the Provisional Government was not terminated by force, but by an agreement concluded between Doreau and Schoelcher on one side, and the representatives of the Government on the other, and was subsequently ratified by them and Flourens The agreement was that the election for commune should take place on Tuesday under direction of Dorean and Shoelcher, and election for a new Government on Wednesday To avoid bloodshed and prove to our friends and the partisans of the Government that we were of one mind we agreed to leave Hotel de Ville together On our side the agreement was completely fulfilled, and the members of the Government remaining in our custody were released Flourens quitted Hotel de Ville in their company The next morning all these sacred pledges were violated Commune elections were postponed or abandoned and there will be no levy en masse The letter concludes "Do you then wish for civil war in order to repeat at Paris the disasters of Sedan and Metz?"

The Paris Journal publishes a semi-official statement of the reasons for Rochefort's retirement the first being his failure to hold Commune elections, and the second the Government's consent to armistice negotiations Rochefort is effectually alienated from the Flourens party Trochu and five other members of the Government wrote to Rochefort, asking him to return, but he refused and intends to begin the publication of a new paper

Manifesto from Bismarck

LONDON Nov 8—Bismarck has furnished the following explanation of the rupture of negotiations for an armistice The French Government having declined, through its representative Thiers to accept the German offer of an armistice on the basis of statu quo, the Count proposed that the French should name a time for holding an election for a Constituent Assembly The Germans promised in such an event that absolute freedom of elections should be respected even in territory now occupied by the Prussians. Thiers thereupon withdrew to the outposts to consult with Favre, but at length returned to Versailles without power to accept the German terms. King William has issued an order that no person be allowed hereafter to enter or leave Paris Passengers have just been captured and will be court martialed for violation of the order

The Responsibility thrown on the French

BERLIN Nov 8—All the Berlin papers, official and others throw the whole responsibility of the impending destruction of Paris on the French They say the latter have thus far obstinately refused to recognize plain facts

Skirmishing Renewed.

MARSEILLES Nov 8—Gen Truskow reported to Prussian Headquarters here yesterday that his division repulsed Franc Tireurs in several engagements, on the 2d inst., between Orleans and Belfort. He also reports the occurrence of several skirmishes at Roughment and Petril Moseney, between Prussians and Mobiles, in which the French lost five officers and 193 men The French fortress at Belfort was invested on Thursday

Dispatch from Vienna

VIENNA Nov 8—A correspondent asserts that the French government acts as if it were unconscious of defeat. Its tone and manner are the same as they would have been if the French army had been victorious and were now before the city of Berlin

The Armistice Opposed by Trochu.

LONDON Nov 8—Private dispatches received from Versailles confirm the account given by Bismarck of the suspension of negotiations for an armistice Jules Favre together with a majority of his colleagues favored the scheme for election of members to the Constituent Assembly, and urged the acceptance of an armistice as negotiated by Thiers Trochu commander of armies at Paris dissented and carried his point.

Dispatch from Marseilles.

MARSEILLES Nov 8 via London—Esquinos reports that people are now in quiet submission to the government authorities and therefore submits his resignation asserting that it is the duty of the hour to unite against the invaded The Mayor of the city has issued a proclamation annulling all acts of the revolutionary committee

General Dispatches

LONDON, Nov 5—Metz has been made capital of German Lothinger and Lorraine.

The Times has reason to believe that the bombardment of Paris will not begin for two weeks King William is reluctant to destroy so grand a city and is giving the French every opportunity to negotiate for peace.

Vigorous preparations are making at Lyons for defence A great quantity of provisions has been collected and all able bodied citizens have been thoroughly armed All communications northward from Lyons have been cut by the Prussians

BERLIN Nov 8—The Prussian Government recently gave orders for the restoration of the lights and buoys at the mouth of Elbe river Since then the order has been countermanded

The Daily Oregonian

WEDNESDAY MORNING NOV 9 1870

The War Goes On

The armistice has failed The French Provisional Government has refused to accept the conditions required by Bismarck and Bismarck is inexorable It is announced that the war goes on

It is madness for the French to protract this contest further There is good sense as well as fortitude in yielding to the inevitable when the inevitable comes The French cannot expel the German armies If the regular forces of the country all of which have been killed captured or dispersed could not keep the Germans out of France the French people without plans, without mutual agreement or military leadership cannot expel them, now that they are in the country and hold many of its strongest places No doubt the French people are making great efforts but these efforts lose their force because they are not directed by a united purpose France now could only be saved by that sort of genius and leadership which could combine her whole strength as in a single arm and wield it with an energy the most resolute and a military intelligence of the highest order And this sort of leadership France has not and is not likely to find

The present condition of the war is, indeed a remarkable one "It presents," says the Chicago Tribune the fact of a nation of 40 000 000 of people who have enjoyed for centuries and justly too the reputation of being among the first of the earth in all the essentials of a warlike nation now utterly helpless in their own defence The entire history of France has been illustrated by the bravery of her troops, the skill of her military commanders and the intense patriotism of her people This patriotism has induced the French people, during centuries of degrading oppression, to fill up the armies and uphold the flag of France, even when to do so was to perpetuate the despotism that ruled them at home Eighty years ago when the first republic was proclaimed the people of the French provinces did not wait for any military summons, they organized themselves into companies and marched to Paris The people were their own recruiting sergeants During the twenty years of Napoleon's military career, there was never a moment of hesitation on the part of the people. Wherever the flag of France was carried they followed whenever France was invaded they rallied to her defence They crowded into the army to bear the eagles over the Alps to carry them into Egypt, and to Russia The greater the force opposed to France the higher rose the enthusiastic valor of the French Nor did the military character of the French pale with Napoleon Since then her arms have been victorious, and the judgment of mankind has awarded to the French the successes of the war of the Crimea. The war against Austria, in behalf of Italy, was a series of brilliant successes, and Magenta and Solferino are recorded in the long list of French victories "

But these days of spirit and enterprise are to all appearance ended. The French people are not making an effort worthy of themselves. Yet they reject offers of peace and resolve to continue a war which has been a succession of unparalleled disasters The terms of the peace which Germany offers are undoubtedly humiliating to France, and so were the terms which the First Napoleon forced Germany to accept, humiliating to Germany Then Prussia had to yield one-third of her territory. It cannot be more dishonoring to France to cede territory now And as the fortunes of France are desperate as there is no indication that the people have a disposition to make a patriotic effort worthy of their day of greater military renown, the Provisional Government should have accepted the inevitable and put a stop to the war, which will plunge France into greater calamities the longer it continues

Anxious to Disgorge

It was asserted by the Herald that the corporation designated by the Legislature to receive the benefit of the school fund subsidy was to pay ten per cent of the gross receipts for passing boats through the locks at Willamet Falls, into the school fund We cornered the organ of the plunderers on this by quoting the very letter of the act, which reads "net profits" instead of "gross receipts," and also by showing that another responsible company offered to take the subsidy and pay ten per cent of the gross receipts into the school fund, but the Legislature rejected the proposition But now comes the Herald with another attempt to palliate the robbery and justify the plundering ring, by stating that though the act under which they take the subsidy does indeed stipulate "net profits" instead of "gross receipts" the ring are anxious to have it changed, so that they can pay into the school fund ten per cent of the gross proceeds that the ring intend to ask the next Legislature to change it, and that meantime they have agreed to give a bond to that effect Of course the Herald expects somebody to believe this A corporation is always so anxious to disgorge This one will disgorge of its own accord, and is beseeching for a chance to give the school fund something! Disinterested corporation!

The course which this ring of plunderers and their organ are taking indicates their alarm lest their scheme may recoil on them and the plunder be lost Hence the attempt to soften some of the worst features of the swindle by these pretences

The Government Sales of Arms

A Washington correspondent states on the authority of the President and the Secretaries of the Treasury and War that no arms or other munitions of war have been sold by our Government knowingly to the agents of France, or to American citizens acting for agents during the present war between France and Prussia nor is it known officially or otherwise whether the arms which have lately been sold have been sent to France or not It is stated that an agent of France desirous of purchasing at a recent sale, was not permitted to bid and that a sale which had been advertised to take place on the 15th October was postponed at the instance of the Prussian Minister till the 18th No partiality it is further stated has been shown to either belligerent

While the rule of neutrality is strictly construed against the fitting out of vessels or the enlistment of men on neutral territory in behalf of either belligerent arms and munitions of war may be exported by private citizens Neither the law of nations nor the law of the United States can prevent it During our late civil war the burden of complaint on the part of our Government was not that arms and ammunition were freely sold by the English to the Confederates, but rather that ships of war had been fitted out in British waters for the Confederate service to prey directly upon our commerce It was held by our Government that this was a flagrant violation of the law of nations and this the basis of the pending [illegible] claims

The appropriation made by the Legislature for the printing of the recent session were very large amounting, we believe, to something like fifteen thousand dollars How much of this sum is to be credited to the gross fraud of which the Democratic Legislative Committee found the State Printer guilty is an interesting matter which has not yet been [illegible]

The election in Louisiana took place on Monday New Orleans which was carried by the Democrats in the last election through violence and fraud by a majority of 20 000 votes now gives 3 000 to 4 000 Republican majority and the State which gave Seymour over 40 000 majority now goes Republican The Republicans it is probable have gained several members of Congress

It is intimated by the Herald that we keep a file of that paper A great mistake We have kept no file of it since Beriah Brown ceased to be its editor It has not possessed value enough for preservation Since Mr Brown left the editorial chair has been filled by one poor dolt after another and a file of the paper would be rather poor property

Another Tragedy in Idaho

A MAN'S ENTRAILS CUT OUT

From the Boise Statesman Nov [illegible]

Last Monday night between ten and eleven o'clock Dr Smith was aroused by the barking of his dog and the noise of something falling on the porch On going to the door he found a man named Joseph Craig lying there with his bowels protruding which in his agony he was endeavoring to replace with his hands Upon examination the doctor discovered two frightful knife wounds inflicted in the lower abdomen—one made on each side and almost meeting in the middle—the man presented the appearance of being cut in two The wounds were dressed and the unfortunate man removed to the residence of D W Blake on Eleventh street between Idaho and Bannack where he at times resided Craig lived until sundown Tuesday, when he expired, and was buried Wednesday afternoon. The circumstances connected with the affair are about as follows as related by Mrs Blake and the man a short time after the tragedy occurred Joseph Craig came down from Loon Creek two or three weeks ago, and was followed by Mr D W Blake, wife and two children, with whom Craig had lived at different times for three years past When the family arrived here they moved into a house which had been previously rented by Craig for that purpose, the former not being in very good circumstances Blake went to work sawing wood and doing other odd jobs as he could get them, and Craig we believe was attending bar in a saloon, and making his home with the family On the night of the cutting Craig was there before Blake came in, and when the latter arrived they conversed in their usual friendly style, Mrs Blake taking part in the conversation About ten o'clock Blake retired and left Craig and Mrs Blake sitting up. After mending a pair of pants which her husband passed to her after going to bed, Craig told her that he would take breakfast there the next morning whereupon she asked him to get her a bucket of water for the purpose of mixing flour to make hot rolls. He took the bucket and went out to the well, which is about fifteen feet from the back door, and when he returned she met him on the step and took the bucket and while talking there Blake came rushing out and said "this is what you are up to," and struck Craig Craig asked what he meant, and he replied "I'll show you what I mean," and immediately struck him again Mrs Blake then discovered that he had a knife, and grasped him by the arms and took it away after he had turned to strike her with it The weapon used was a common pocket knife Craig after getting released from further assault turned and ran to the residence of Dr Smith where he was found as before stated. Mrs Blake further states that young Craig had befriended the family and was almost considered an inmate of the household, and that her husband had no cause in the world to commit the deed The little boy says that both men had been drinking freely but nothing unusual transpired, as he could hear everything said from where he lay in bed Joseph Craig was the son of Alexander Craig the discoverer of the Loon Creek mines, and known as the "whip saw man" They came from Red Bluffs, California, and had been in Idaho three or four years Blake has been living in the Territory about the same length of time and came with his wife from Louisa county, Iowa. They have two interesting children—a boy aged ten and a little girl aged seven As soon as he committed the deed he disappeared, and has not been seen since It is somewhat singular that a man should kill another without cause or provocation and particularly one who had been living and associating with him But Mrs Blake says that no previous ill feeling existed, and her husband had no cause for jealousy

There are, of course, other rumors afloat, but as they are all more or less conflicting and compromise the fidelity and integrity of the wife we refrain from publishing them until they appear to have some solid foundation

A Lost Man in Montana

HIS WANDERINGS HARDSHIPS AND SUFFERINGS

Some weeks ago Hon T C Everts Secretary of Montana Territory was separated and lost from a party with whom he was traveling in the wilds on the Yellowstone river He suffered incredible hardships but was at last found and rescued A correspondent of the Helena Herald writing from Bozeman City October 21, tells the terrible story as follows

I am enabled to-day to give you full particulars of the finding of Mr Everts as I have them from Mr Jack Barnett, the man who found him I shall endeavor to quote his language as near as possible

Barnett does not remember the exact day of finding Mr Everts, but says he was traveling on the side of a tall mountain, and descried an object on the opposite side of another mountain, walking along and occasionally stooping down behind rocks suddenly seeking shelter from the wind as it had been snowing and was bitterly cold The mountain was rough and covered with large boulders and the object would dodge about from one to another to gain protection from the chilling wind He (Barnett) immediately started across the intervening space and when he got within ten or fifteen feet, Mr Everts (for it was him) threw up his hands but could not articulate anything distinctly Barnett then took him on his shoulders and bore him down to the valley to camp and made him some tea then for the first time he ejaculated "Thank God I am safe." His mind wandered most of the time for some days, but a limited diet of antelope tea and warm drinks gradually restored him until he was able to give in a disjointed manner the way he became lost and his subsequent trials and hardships up to the time of his discovery

Mr Everts is now at Fort Ellis too weak to walk but in mind as sound as could be expected He will be here in Bozeman to-morrow—a mere child in weight

Now for his trials etc as near as I can remember their relation The day he was lost he had stopped aside to examine something but in attempting to regain the trail of his party he dismounted and walked around in order to see the trail better left his horse for a moment to step aside and when he turned back saw to his dismay his horse running off with gun blankets everything except a butcher knife which he had on his person He gave up the chase of his horse as fruitless and then turned his attention to taking care of himself He went to one of the numerous warm springs in that vicinity, built a little brush shanty just over the spring, and was enabled to keep himself in a measure warm although scalding himself He subsisted on thistle roots and small fish caught with his handkerchief made himself a rude hook from his breeches buckle and caught two large fish with that The line was composed of pieces of canvass torn in strips and tied together His camp kettle was a yeast powder box in which he boiled roots and grasshoppers but the latter he had to give up as they would not stay on his stomach He thinks he remained about the springs some sixteen or seventeen days After leaving there he went entirely around the southern extremity of the Yellowstone lake and started down on the east side He built fires with the aid of his opera glass and carried a brand whenever and as long as he could When found he did not remember how long he had been without fire He thought he had been lost about seventy days The fish he caught he devoured raw and thought them the most delicious morsels he had ever eaten Of his real sufferings and trials no pen can give an adequate description His superhuman efforts and tenacity to life were remarkable Too much praise cannot be accorded to Mr Barnett and others who gave up their time [illegible] to taking care of him One day later and only the corpse of Mr Everts would have been found to speak in mute language of his terrible hardships and sufferings

THE TERRITORIES

The snow line has crept down the flanks of the Blue Mountains nearly to the edge of Walla Walla valley

New mines that are causing a great excitement have been discovered on Clark's Fork of the Yellowstone

Two millions and one hundred thousand acres of land have been surveyed in Montana since January last

Horse Prairie west of Cedar Creek contains many settlers who do not know whether they are in Idaho or Montana

There is said to be a white buffalo on the Yellowstone He runs on three legs the bullet of a prospector having disabled him

Mr E Meeker of Olympia, has just prepared a large pamphlet on the resources of Washington Territory west of the Cascade mountains which is now ready for delivery

From the Walla Walla [illegible] At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Walla Walla and Columbia river Railroad Company, held on Tuesday November 1st the following named officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year Trustees D S Baker B L Sharpstein L Mc Morris I T Reese, and J F Boyer, President D S Baker Vice President I T Reese Secretary H M Chase Treasurer, Wm Stephens An assessment of ten per cent was levied on stock subscribed and the Secretary was authorized to receive subscriptions for 100 shares more and to collect ten per cent assessment thereon This company has now been organized about two years and are only waiting to see where the Northern Pacific Company will locate their road The gentlemen composing the company are men of means and if so inclined can do a great deal towards building the road from this place to the Columbia We hope that they may soon make an earnest commencement and that the road may have a speedy and successful completion

CURRENT NOTES

The Charleston Courier says that a young widow of that place has just celebrated her wooden wedding by marrying a blockhead

Hon Ezekiel Bacon, one of the oldest public men in the country has just died in Utica, N Y, at the age of 94 He was a member of Congress from Massachusetts from 1807 to 1812 He was Comptroller of the United States Treasury in the Madison administration

It is stated that when Eugenie, or Madame Bonaparte as a number of French papers are now calling her, arrived in England, one of her first acts was to borrow 100,000 francs from an English banker She declared that her jewelry was safely concealed, and that she had "prudently" drawn upon the civil list two days before the revolution broke out

The French Ministry continue to talk about a force called the Army of the Loire It is noticeable that the Army of the Loire itself also has displayed a remarkable capacity for holding its peace since its encounter with the Prussians near Orleans Is the "Army of the Loire" one of those pleasing fictions with which the French Junta are endeavoring to keep up the courage of their adherents?

An Iowa paper says Hon James F Wilson member of Congress as long as he wanted to be after refusing three Cabinet offices, several foreign missions, and a variety of other high positions at the last election was voted in as Road Supervisor of District No 6 Fairfield As it is a respectable and useful position and one which he can take without truckling to President King or Emperor, or any other man, we anticipate that he will accept

WAR MISCELLANY

The energies of British humanitarians are very actively engaged in alleviating the distress caused by the war in France and Germany The "Society for the Relief of the Sick and Wounded" had at latest accounts from London received subscriptions amounting to nearly $2 000 000 and the agents of the Society have done an immense amount of philanthropic work The New York Tribune estimates that about half a million dollars has gone from this country for the relief of the distress of the war—most of it for the benefit of the German side

Assuming that the knell of French ascendancy has been rung a European critic remarks that no modern nation has held the position of military arbiter long The general law has given it to the most northern nation that could wield consolidated strength Asiatic gave place to Greek and Greek to Macedonian dominion From Macedon the tide of conquest rolled onward to Rome But victory forsook the eagles of Rome for the standards of Germany as soon as the empire of the west went to pieces Spain was the first nation to display united coherence and she in consequence dominated Europe When France however, collected her scattered strength military supremacy followed in her wake After retaining it for two hundred years a united Germany nails it to her standard again

Central Europe is said by a bold figure to have the aspect of a vast hospital In the district of Treves alone there are no less than forty five hospitals The war hospitals of Germany contain a total of 63 000 beds 50 000 of which have been provided by the State The provision of medical men is large the Germans having no less than 2 700 medical men with the troops in the field The Registrar General in England has for a long time been in the habit of publishing in his weekly return the weekly mortality in the cities of Berlin and Paris A few weeks ago he announced the suspension of the Berlin returns in consequence of the departure for the army headquarters of the medical officers who supplied them and when the investment of Paris began the Registrar's returns were interrupted The usual return of deaths in Paris has not come to hand Balloon mails are not weighted with these mournful statistics

The resolve of Prussia to have a strong navy becomes very apparent She had before the war fifteen iron clad frigates and about twenty first and second class gunboats—the most efficient of them having been built after English and French models in the dockyards of Blackwall and Toulon But she has recently constructed enormous dockyards of her own in the Bay of Jadhe at a cost of some ten millions of dollars A navy of course requires a large seaboard well connected war ports and an easy passage into the open sea The possession of Kiel solves the problem of effecting a communication between the Baltic and the North Seas without exposing the German fleets to be riddled by the Danish forts in passing through the Sound The intention of Prussia is to cut a huge canal in imitation of that of Lesseps across Schleswig which will connect Kiel harbor with the German Ocean at the mouth of the Elder By that means her own navy will be sheltered from the interference of the northern powers But is Kiel enough The Netherlands alone interpose a small slip of territory between Germany and a seaboard which once endowed an enterprising people with marine supremacy Consequently Holland is ill at ease and feels that her independence hangs by a thread

It is contended by some who insist that Prussia has no right to wrench a limb from France which must afflict it with incurable lameness that if the principle the Germans are now seeking to apply to Alsace and Lorraine be universalized nearly every state in Europe would have to be dismembered Two provinces of Russia—Esthonia and Courland speak German Are these to be incorporated with the fatherland? Dutch is only corrupt German One third of the Swiss country comprises German speaking territories Are these also to be annexed? Does the Northern Bund contemplate placing another Gottingen at the Hague in order to teach the inhabitants to speak their language with more correctness As to the six provinces of Austria their fate is sealed In Holstein it is impossible to say where the German ceases or the Dane begins In Calais and Boulogne the population is as much English as French In part of Guernsey is much French as English There are districts in the Pyrenees which are neither Spanish nor French but a melange of both In Bohemia the German and the Slavonic in the Tyrol the German and the Italian in Alsace the German and the French neutralize each other If each state was to insist upon governing every man belonging to its nation it is evident that every community in Europe would be embroiled with its neighbor in a struggle after the [illegible]

A special committee which had been charged with duty of procuring a hall for the use of the Board and for a Recorder's court room, reported in favor of accepting a proposition from Nat. H Lane to furnish the upper story of his building

Ordinances were passed defining the powers and duties and fixing the salaries of Recorder, Treasurer, Attorney and Marshal The Recorder who is also Auditor is to have a salary of $600, and to give bonds in the sum of $1000, Treasurer's salary $100 bonds $5 000, Attorney's salary $300, Marshal's salary $600, bonds $1000

An ordinance was passed to define and punish offences and disorderly conduct.

The Auditor was instructed to cause to be printed the rules of order and the list of standing committees

The President was instructed to make all necessary arrangements for fitting up and furnishing the city hall and court room.

BRIEF MENTION —We learn from the Herald that the Salem Chief of the Portland Metropolitan Police was in town yesterday.

A Northern Pacific Railroad surveying party left this city yesterday morning for Monticello.

Mr Wm Connell left this city yesterday with over two hundred head of young cattle for his ranch at Rockland Eastern Oregon.

There will be a meeting to-morrow evening of the stockholders and directors of the Masonic Building Association of this city

The locomotive "Portland," which was thrown from the trestle bridge at East Portland, a couple of months since has been fully repaired and placed again in service on the road.

Farmers in the vicinity of the city complain frequently of the carelessness of our city shootists

The bark Edward James will sail from this port to-morrow for Hong Kong

The barkentine Webfoot has been laid on for San Francisco with most of her cargo already engaged

The stock of the circus lately playing here has been turned out to grass on Switzer's bottom and the concern may be said to have gone into winter quarters

COME AT LAST —Yesterday was nothing if it was not winter It was one of the old time opening days of a nine months Webfoot winter; windy, rainy, sloppy muddy, nasty, cold and as disagreeable as all of the foregoing adjectives collectively, or any of them in combination, could make it. It was just such a day as on which G P R James would have delighted to descry a belated, lone horseman, close-wrapped in a brown cloak, bravely buffeting the saucy wind and the pelting rain, wearily climbing a long ascent on whose bleak summit might be seen an old straw thatched, tumble-down barn inhabited only by miserably starved and gray old rats such as are never seen, except—in such an imaginary place, by such an imaginary footman on such a real day, etc, etc. That's the kind of a day yesterday was

4. The Comic Quadrille
5. St. Louis Polka.
6. Oh! Give me back my Arab Steed
7. Song—"The Loved one was not there."
8. The Sylphide Galop

LAYING IN SUPPLIES —About the only signs of business life yesterday, were exhibited by gangs of Chinamen who despite the rain, were swarming about the grocery stores and laying in supplies for their voyage home per bark Edward James Judging alone from the noise and confusion they made it would seem that not less than fourteen hundred Chinamen were getting ready to go, the real number however, was about seventy five.

DRAGGED ANCHOR —During one of the violent blows yesterday afternoon the bark Tordenskold, lying in the stream off the steamship dock, dragged her anchor and sailed for Swan Island, or at least, in that direction The crew being called out by a halloo from the dock paid out a little more chain and the Tordenskold is still here.

A JAIL WANTED —The East Portland authorities have their eyes on the old powder house for a jail, and a committee has been appointed by the Board of Trustees to negotiate for it The building would answer the purpose very well except during high water when it would be rather moist for a regular residence.

SECOND CROP PEARS —Mr D O Quick of Washington County sends us a couple of specimens of Bartlett Pears the second growth this year from a tree in his orchard They are fully matured and ripe with the genuine Bartlett flavor and one of them is fully average size—the other is small.

OREGON [illegible] —In the list of patents issued in October we find the names of two Oregon men who figure as inventors and patentees of Medical Compounds —John D L [illegible] and Wm W [illegible] of [illegible]

[illegible] —The U S grand jury has found [illegible] indictment having examined and dismissed several charges Thus far the jury have had but very brief sessions each day having to wait for the summoning of witnesses

FESTIVAL —There will be a festival at the basement of the Taylor street M E Church this evening under the superintendence of the Ladies Furnishing Society Admission twenty five cents

[illegible] —We learn that Messrs Allen & Lewis have chartered the ship Montgomery Castle [illegible] Moffitt's wharf to load with wheat for the Liverpool market.

LADIES FAIR —We are authorized to say that the ladies connected with the Unitarian Church of this city will hold a fair and festival on or about the [illegible] of December next

EXPORTS —The exports of domestic merchandise from this port to foreign countries during the month of October amounted to about $[illegible] 000

[illegible] FLOODED.—First street was in a very delightful state of submersion last evening. [illegible] came pouring down from everywhere, bringing with it sticks, straw and all sorts of [illegible] which dextrously inserted themselves [illegible] fast in the sewer grates, choking them [illegible] were water tight, and then the floods [illegible] pouring and roaring on from one grate to another, from one street crossing to another, till [illegible] not a sewer within the corporate limits [illegible] as much water as could be squirted through a good sized quill. The accumulated [illegible] had to go somewhere or be somewhere, and [illegible] scattered itself promiscuously about, cover[illegible] the crossings, the sidewalks, the pavement—[illegible] here, a torrent there, a lake yonder, and [illegible] everywhere. Pedestrianism was almost [illegible] the question, boots were non est, swimming [illegible] revolting expedient considering the temperature, and so people who were unfortunate [illegible] to be out and going, or rather, wishing to [illegible], gathered in knots on the street [illegible] and wondered how they were to get on. J. J. Henderson vs. Richard White; demurrer to complaint overruled, and defendant allowed till Thursday to file his answer.

A REMARKABLE PIECE OF WORKMANSHIP.—The San Francisco Bulletin of the 28th ult., has a long article on the manufactories of San Francisco, from which the following extract, concerning a "Palace Railroad Car," will interest our readers: This is being built in one of two car shops 90 by 25 feet in size, which have recently been erected in the yard for the building of these giant cars. The one in question will be 60 feet in the clear, and including platforms, 67 feet, and ten feet wide. It will be divided into six different apartments, with sleeping accommodations for thirty-two persons, with four wash basins and four dressing rooms. Through the center is a passage where, if so minded, any one can promenade at any hour of day or night. The marvel of the car is not alone the luxury and convenience of its appointments, but the great variety of beautiful and costly woods which are used in its building. The whole of the outside is composed of Primaveira, a beautiful Mexican wood, much resembling the laurel of California, and capable of receiving a most translucent polish. The planks of this wood used in the construction of the car are each the length of the latter—no jointing, morticing, etc., being required. In fact, the difficulty is the sawing of the lumber short enough—any amount of it and several other California and Mexican woods being obtained in straight planks measuring in the clear 120 feet. The arches over the doors will be composed of Oregon ash, and the interior, which is divided into a number of separate panels, will have no less than thirty different woods used in its construction, and as each of these is a different color, and takes a different polish, and as the colors are most vivid, it will form the most magnificent and beautiful coup d'œil imaginable. There is a perfumed wood from Mexico, emitting a most fragrant smell; pine, maple and ash from Oregon; cedar from Port Orford; coffeewood, mosquitwood, equilado, tecamato, abajo vera, chilillo, cabo de hacho, linafuerra and tigerwood, likewise from Mexico; mountain mahogany, lancewood, ilualos, colorado lena, ebony, beech and maple from California; cohawood from the Sandwich Island; cedar from Alaska, and others too numerous to mention. Some of these are of a bright red, others purple, olive, brown, yellow, etc. One from Tahiti looks like a section of a living muscle, with the flesh, arteries, etc., distinctly visible; another looks like the spotted coat of the American tiger; yet another has the appearance of watered silk, while one actually shows the figures of two mastiffs swimming in the water and approaching each other, every feature and every texture of their shaggy coats being distinctly visible. These woods being obtained from trees, natives of the growing tropics, are all, when seasoned, nearly as hard as iron, and extremely difficult to work. Some of them are almost as heavy as if they were metal, while others are extremely light; but none of them are subject to being cracked or otherwise injured by the rays of the hottest sun. They are finished off with one coat of varnish. This car has a bolted circular roof, lighted by variously stained glass, and will be provided with most luxurious furniture. We were informed that Mr. Pullman, the inventor of this class of cars is now about having 100 of them built in various parts of the Eastern States, at a cost of $15,000 each.

"THE STUDENTS' REPOSITORY."—At the Portland Academy and Female Seminary yesterday, the school selected one of their number, Mr. Wm. Upton, editor of The Student's Repository. This paper is to be an Educational monthly, the organ especially of the Academy, but devoted to the cause of Education in Oregon. The first edition of 1,000 copies will be issued on the 17th. At first it will be of a size to be self supporting by advertisements for gratuitous distribution, and grow afterwards by growing. We wish it success.

RIVER NEWS.—The steamer passed the Okanagan yesterday at Hume's Landing, having in tow the bark Whistler.

The Alpha and Commodore went to sea on Sunday.

A Remarkable Disenchantment.

An Eastern paper has the following, which is worth reading

Of all the infinite variety of devices suggested by the fruitful imaginations of novel-writers for helping their heroines to riddance of too persistent adorers, we don't remember one so entirely original, and (as the result showed) so instantly effective, as that adopted at Norwich, Conn, the other day, by a lovely and unsophisticated child of the forest a remnant of the noble race which once claimed this broad continent as its heritage. A young mechanic of the town saw her peddling beaded moccasins and other products of her skill and taste, and became desperately enamored. He visited her wigwam and showered gifts upon the object of his love, but her soul yearned for the companionship of a dirty-faced, howling Adonis of her own race, and she looked coldly upon her bleached worshiper. Wearied, at length, of his too assiduous devoirs, she gathered the trinket-tokens of his love, bore them to the wigwam of a fire-water vender in the village, and received in exchange a quart of his concentrated essence of delirium tremens. Drinking deeply of this delicious beverage, she speedily collected a crowd in the public square—her pale-faced lover with the rest and amused them there for half an hour with somersaults and other playful antics, concluding by taking a seat upon her head, her other extremities extending skyward The lover gazed in speechless horror of the spectacle for five minutes, then rushed to his shop, wiped the scalding tears from his eyes with a corner of his blacksmith apron consigned to the flames his collection of Cooper's and Emerson Bennett's novels, and sadly resumed the dreary round of unromantic toil which had been for the moment interrupted by the grand passion of his life. We could not conscientiously commend this device of the wild rose of Norwich woods for imitation by other damsels besieged by importunate lovers, or in danger of forced nuptials with men they detest; but novelists dealing with such cases, and desiring to introduce a strikingly original tableau, might do worse than try it as an experiment

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—The Sixth United States District Court to-day, in the case of the California Building and Loan Society, in bankruptcy, the appointment of Trustees and Advisory Committee was confirmed.

The case of George L. Lloyd, sentenced to-day to 10 years in the State prison for the killing of Barry, will be taken to the Supreme Court immediately on appeal.

W. L. Upton has sued Prof. Thomas Price for $25,000 damages, for the loss of his eye by the explosion of a glass apparatus with which the Professor was making experiments illustrating a lecture at the City College some months since. He alleges that the accident was the result of ignorance or carelessness on the part of Price.

The weather is warm and clear and no indications of rain at present.

A small steamer has been built here for navigating the Laguna of Cayutlan, which runs back some 30 miles into the interior from Manzanillo, Mexico This will open up a new source of supply for tropical fruit for this market.

From San Diego.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 8.—The steamer Senator, due yesterday did not arrive until midnight in consequence of having been ordered by telegraph while at San Pedro to put to sea and intercept the Pacific mail steamer Colorado, which had sailed from San Francisco to Panama, having on board one Van Tassel, whom they were ordered to arrest on a charge of passing a forged Government check for $10,000 on the Bank of California. The Senator reached the course of the Panama steamer at 8 o'clock on Saturday and remained in the neighborhood until 10 o'clock but failed to discover her. A fresh north west breeze came up which compelled the Senator to return and proceed on her course to this port, arriving here as above stated.

STOCKTON, Nov. 8.—White Pine saloon, situated on the corner of Main and Sutter streets, was entirely destroyed by fire this morning. Loss covered by insurance.

UTAH.

CORINNE, Nov. 8.—Capt. John McCasey, while prospecting for silver mines struck a lead of coal six feet square within 8 miles of Ogden and has made offer to sell it to the Central Pacific R. R. Co.

ARIZONA.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8.—Prescott, Arizona, advices to the 29th of October state that the Rainbow lode continues good. Several tons of ore, which will assay $1,000 per ton, are now out and being crushed. The quartz and placer miners of Walker District, upper Lynx creek, have been very successful in their operations during the past summer.

No Indian depredations are reported. Capt. McNottersville, 21st Infantry, established a post in the heart of the Pinal country, although the Pinal Indians have said they would never permit a post to be established in their country. Gen. Sheridan expects good results from this new post as soon as it can be made so that a few infantry can defend it.

NEVADA.

Election Returns.

RENO, Nov. 8.—The election to day at Reno precinct gives Tritle, Republican candidate for Governor, 91 majority; Wadsworth precinct, Tritle received 25 majority.

VIRGINIA, Nov. 8.—The election in this city to day passed off very quietly. Owing to many scratched tickets in this county the result will not be known till midnight. The general impression prevails that the Union ticket is about 200 ahead. Reports from the eastern portion of the State indicate that the Democratic ticket is ahead. Both parties claim the State.

HAMILTON, Nov. 8.—A fight occurred in this city this afternoon in which a butcher named Granthauser was seriously wounded by a man named Kussner. A medical examination of the wounded man exhibited three holes in his skull which had been inflicted by blows from a revolver. Kussner is in custody.

In the election to day, the Republicans claim a majority of 40 at Treasure City and 75 at Shermantown. Owing to the number of scratched tickets at Hamilton, it is impossible to form any estimate of the result until morning.

Samuel Bell, Chief of Police at Eureka, was shot last night at that place by a man named Libby, a cripple. Particulars not received.

TOANO, Nov. 8.—Yesterday a detachment of cavalrymen arrived here from camp Halleck, and are scouring the country in search of the party who robbed the Central Pacific Railroad train on Saturday evening. Suspicious characters have been seen on the overland road near Deer Creek, proceeding east, and they have probably gone into southern Utah. The Sheriff and posse leave here to-night for that part of the country.

OREGON.

The Chemeketa Hotel at Salem costs $120,000.

Says the Eugene Journal: Our enterprising farmer and grain merchant, Mr. E. Chichester, has now in the pen fattening over 1,000 head of hogs.

D. G. Gay of Eugene City, has received from the United States Patent Office, letters of a patent on an invention "for setting logs on the head blocks of saw mills."

The editor of the Statesman, in want of eggs, has searched Salem over, and found only one egg. But one grocer had good butter. It is time the people of this country were beginning to do something.

There is a colored family living near Corvallis which is said to have the smallpox. Several members of the family are lying very low, and Dr. Lee of Corvallis, who has been attending them, decidedly pronounces the disease to be the smallpox.

Here is an account of the land disposed of at the Roseburg Land Office, during the month of October: Number of acres sold, 2519.11; acres taken under the homestead law, 4568 90; acres taken under pre emption law, 3260.00. Total for the month, 10348.01.

The British military authorities have resolved to introduce the Gatling mitrailleuse as part of the armament of their regiments

The Summer is past and Autumn is here,
The finest season throughout the whole year,
But the days grow cool, and all must prepare
For warmer Clothing in Winter to wear.
Well, KOHN & FISHEL, of Clothing renown,
Have the best supply ever brought to town
They have all sorts of coats and pants that will match,
That will last a whole year and not need a patch,
There are socks, vests and shirts and a thousand things more,
Which they offer you cheaper than ever before.
You all need the clothes and they need the tin,
Then get a new suit and let Winter go in.

B. L. STONE, at 105 Front street, has just received by last steamer and will continue to receive by every steamer, new lots of CLOCKS, WATCHES and elegant JEWELRY of every description which he will continue to sell very cheap, having found that this policy of "small profits and quick returns" is the secret road to success He is also prepared to do all sorts of repairing on the shortest notice.

If you wish to buy or rent Farms or City Property call on PARRISH & ATKINSON, Corner of Front and Alder streets, Portland, Oregon.

If your tongue is coated, mouth tastes badly, have a poor appetite, feel dull, stupid, despondent, sleepy or dizzy, your liver does not act properly, and nothing will relieve and cure you so speedily as Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery. It stimulates all the secretions to action, restores the appetite and unclogs the bowels As a blood purifier for the cure of pimples and blotches on the face, Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas and all Scrofulous and Skin diseases it is unequaled. System run Down.

Persons often allow their systems to "run down," or rather run them down, by over-work, accompanied by a neglect of the proper means of invigoration The result is what is called "GENERAL DEBILITY," in other words, a failure and partial collapse of the physical forces, accompanied, usually, by great depression of spirits.

The best remedy in such cases is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Whether the state of exhaustion has been brought on by excessive physical labor, dissipation, anxiety of mind, exposure, or any other cause, the remedial effect of this great stomachic will be found equally prompt and certain. As a restorative, after severe sickness has prostrated the bodily and mental energies, it is pronounced, by competent medical authority, "THE BEST YET IN USE." If men were not foolishly careless about their health, and over confident in themselves, they would always, when engaged in any work that required great exertion, use corresponding means of sustaining their strength For this purpose Hostetters Bitters are invaluable. All toilers should use them as an invigorant

For those constantly employed in indoor occupations, especially in crowded workshops, they may be reckoned as the very best safeguard of health Where there is a predisposition to constipation, or a tendency to biliousness, they may be truly said to be a specific for which there is no substitute

Farm for Sale.

THE SUBSCRIBER OFFERS HIS WELL KNOWN valuable Farm for sale, situated in Marion county about four miles southwest of Aurora, and one mile west of the railroad. Said farm contains 280 acres of land, 125 acres of which is beautiful prairie—the best of wheat land, 50 acres of excellent timothy pasture and the balance in brush and timber. The whole being well and conveniently watered by never failing water besides two good wells The improvements consist of a small frame house, a barn 30x50, and a small orchard. The fences are all nearly new, the land is well ditched and in a high state of cultivation, having produced the past season 1,400 bushels of wheat besides hay and oats. To any one wishing a First Class Farm, now is the opportunity, as farms of this description are not often offered for sale.

OR GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

This is the most thorough blood purifier yet discovered, and Cures all Humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Eruption. Pimples and Blotches on the face, and scaly or rough skin, which are such annoying blemishes to many young persons, yield to the use of a few bottles of this wonderful medicine. From one to eight bottles cure Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scald Head, Ring Worms, Boils, Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, Scrofula Sores, Ulcers and "Canker" in the Mouth and Stomach. It is a pure medicinal extract of native roots and plants, combining in harmony Nature's most sovereign curative properties, which God has instilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the sick. It is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are languid, sleepless, have nervous apprehensions or fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of weakness, will find convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated and despondent, have frequent Headaches, mouth tastes badly in the morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For the cure of Habitual Constipation of the Bowels it is a never failing remedy, and those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise. In Bronchial, Throat and Lung Diseases, it has produced many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed Sold by druggists at $1 00 per bottle Prepared at the Chemical Laboratory of R. The Angora Goat

The November number of the [illegible] contains a pleasant and instructive article on the subject of the Angora goat a wool bearing animal which has lately occupied the attention of graziers in California. It derives its name from Angora in Asia Minor, the Ancyra where Paul preached to the Galatians. But the goat is by no means confined to the vicinity of the city that gives it its name—being found in fact in almost every part of Asia Minor. It is the principal source of wealth to the wandering Kurds and Turkomans—yielding its flesh and milk for food, its silken wool as an article of clothing and commerce. The Angora goat is devoid of any offensive odor, of larger size than the common goat and graceful in deportment—flaunting proudly its soft and brilliant fleece. The wool of the pure bred Angora goat is equal in texture and value to that of the famous Cashmere goat and a cross between them has in France been found more profitable than the pure bred of either species bearing as it does a heavier and more luxuriant fleece. In California the usual yield to each goat varies from four to nine pounds and the raw article sells readily at $1 per pound. A well dressed skin sells in San Francisco to the shops of the furriers and trimmers for $20 or $25. When cut into strips suitable for cloak fringes it brings about $40. The skins of three quarter and a half bred goats are bought by saddlers for $2 and $3 while a good buggy robe of the skin of a pure bred Angora is worth $150 and upwards. For mutton also the goat is superior—its flesh being much preferred to that of the sheep.

In a report on the Angora goat made to the New England Agricultural Society the following among other evidence was adduced. Col. R H Scott, of Frankfort Kentucky who had a flock of 80 head, said "There is not a sick one among them. They are so fond of weeds bushes and briars, that they will eat them chiefly, if accessible. They will seek shelter at night and during storms, without a shepard. The mutton is the highest luxury of the kind. There is no difference in the fleece of the pure-breds after the fourth cross with a common and a pure-bred buck. They are more profitable than the sheep and the weight of the fleece is from four to eight pounds."

The committee in concluding their report said "We have most conclusive evidence of these important facts. 1st. That the breeding of wool bearing shawl goats in most parts of the United States, is a practicable and certain business and may be made a profitable branch of agricultural labor. 2d, That the manufacture of its fleece in this country promises in the immediate future to be more profitable than that of any other textile. 3d. That the introduction of this goat into the United States is of great national importance economically and politically considered. Your committee believes that the new enterprise breeding goats and manufacturing their hair will not conflict with any other industry of our country sheep husbandry or cotton each having its special utility to recommend it."

To conclude then, why may not goat raising be profitably carried on in Oregon? We have a soft and equitable climate and the finest pasture land in the world. The Angora goat is a hardy healthy animal free from disease, and easily adapting itself to every climatic change. They travel well, and can be driven hundreds of miles without inconvenience. They eat less than sheep and fatten upon herbs and plants that other animals despise. They are strong and combative and successfully resist the attack of wolves and other enemies of the sheep fold. They are found to be profitable in the rigorous climate of Missouri then why not here? In Eastern Oregon we have wide tracts of Government land which are yet free to the roaming of countless herds. The foot hills of the Cascade and Coast mountains, in the Wallamet Valley, are also splendid grazing grounds, and will support immense flocks of goats. All along those wooded foot hills dimpled by fertile vales, are hundreds upon hundreds of poor farmers who, being remote from market have as yet realized nothing from their rich meadow and mountain lands. Let them engage in goat raising. Through the many safe and easy roads which now perforate the Cascade range, they could at the approach of spring drive their herds out upon the rich and free pastures of Eastern Oregon, and bring them back again, when winter came to feed upon the warmer valley hills, or if need be, upon the cured products of their extensive meadows. We are satisfied that proper attention to this branch of agricultural labor will result in swift and generous profit. We can think of no branch of business that promises so much for so little care and would commend it to the attention of our agricultural leaders in the State. Common she goats can be bought in California for $2 or $3—bucks having fifteen sixteenths of Angora blood for $200, and one buck is sufficient for two hundred goats. Or, in the language of the Overland bucks can be hired for the season. Graded bucks are considered better than pure breds for the first cross. The wethers would be sold to the butchers, and the money received for them would be sufficient to meet the current expenses. At the end of the second year, the three-quarter breeds would be of some value on account of the wool and at the end of the third year, the seven-eighth breeds would yield wool nearly equal in value to that of the pure Angora.—Corvallis Gazette

Mark Twain's Advice to a Literary Aspirant

In the Galaxy for November, Mark Twain gives the following common sense answer to a literary aspirant who sent him a paper for criticism:

1 Literature like the ministry medicine the law and all other occupations is cramped and hindered for want of men to do the work not want of work to do. When people tell you the reverse they speak that which is not true. If you desire to test this, you need only hunt up a first-class editor reporter business manager foreman of a shop mechanic or artist in any branch of industry and try to hire him. You will find that he is already hired. He is sober industrious, capable and reliable and is always in demand. He cannot get a day's holiday except by courtesy of his employer or his city or the great general public. But if you need idlers shirkers half instructed, unambitious and comfort seeking editors lawyers doctors and mechanics, apply anywhere. There are millions of them to be had at the dropping of a handkerchief.

2 No I must not and will not venture any opinion whatever as to the literary merit of your productions. The public is the only critic whose judgment is worth anything at all. Do not take my word for this but reflect a moment and take your own. For instance if Sylvanus Cobb or T. S Arthur had submitted their maiden MSS. to you, you would have said, with tears in your eyes "Now please don't write any more!" But you see yourself how popular they are. And if it had been left to you, you would have said the "Marble Faun" was tiresome and that even "Paradise Lost" lacked cheerfulness but you know they sell. Many wiser and better men than you pooh poohed Shakspeare even as late as two centuries ago but still that old party has outlived those people. No, I will not sit in judgment upon your literature. If I honestly and conscientiously praise it I might thus help to inflict a lingering and pitiless bore upon the public, if I honestly and conscientiously condemn it, I might thus rob the world of an undeveloped and unsuspected Dickens or Shakspeare.

3 I shrink from hunting up literary labor for you to do and receive pay for. Whenever your literary productions have proved for themselves that they have a real value you will never have to go round hunting for remunerative literary work to do. You will require more hands than you have now and more brains than you probably ever will have to do even half the work that will be offered to you. Now, in order to arrive at the proof of value hereinbefore spoken of one needs only to adopt a very simple and certainly very sure process and that is to write without pay until somebody offers pay. If nobody offers pay within three years the candidate may look upon this circumstance with the most implicit confidence as the sign that sawing wood is what he was intended for. If he has any wisdom at all then he will retire with dignity and assume his heaven appointed vocation.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, Skin Diseases (of long standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at the pallid [illegible] [illegible] and disfigured face and their broken-down bones [illegible] thus disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In that horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies; see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted and to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz. Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms [illegible] time the disease has continued and have medicine [illegible] forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths shoe makers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1868. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patient's letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR J F GIBBON 623 Kearney street corner Commercial (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 252

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER Consultations FREE

Correspondents will please inform DR GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian jy6d4ptf

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

OF

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their stock

Application for ONE HUNDRED SHARES [illegible] left on the books were opened, and a large [illegible] shares have been taken

The following extracts from the Oregonian [illegible] will convey a good idea of the plan of [illegible] the Association the location of the land, etc.

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

The association of whose organization [illegible] an account a few days since is now ready [illegible] pose of shares. As it is the first [illegible] Portland Homestead Association the [illegible] organization of that kind in this city, it may be well enough to state what are its purposes, and the manner in which it is proposed to conduct its operations. The purposes of these Homestead Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word. They are [illegible] for the profits of their investment upon the natural advance in the value of their lands consequent upon the co operation of many [illegible]—shareholders and the advantages [illegible] surrounding lands by reason of the [illegible] population and demand for room [illegible] still near the city. The Riverside [illegible] Association has a fraction over [illegible] twenty acres of land situated [illegible] Brooklyn on the east side of the river, the southeast boundary line being about one mile from the ferry landing at East Portland. The tract [illegible] is one strip along the Wallamet river, [illegible] in length and another strip along the [illegible] California railroad, half a mile in length, the strips being connected near the [illegible] rows of blocks (with a street between) [illegible] whole forming a figure not unlike [illegible] It is divided into 74 blocks, [illegible] streets running at right angles and [illegible] all lots along the river front. The [illegible] ber 600 worth $50 per share. It will [illegible] a share thus represents nearly a [illegible] vided interest in the 80 fractional [illegible] tional shares are to be sold off [illegible] for the benefit of the Association [illegible] coming in for the proceeds in [illegible] number of shares held. When [illegible] taken and the Association shall determine to do it, the choice of [illegible] will be put up at auction to the highest bidder the proceeds of such sale [illegible] the original price of shares or lots [illegible] equally among the whole number of shares. Thus if a person wants a particular [illegible] and is willing to pay $100 or $200 [illegible] or less as the case may be, he shall [illegible] the lot or block as his individual [illegible] premium being divided among the whole [illegible] of shareholders. It will be [illegible] everything is co-operative, and all [illegible] [illegible] No man can make a dollar out [illegible] out also making a dollar for every other shareholder. There is no [illegible] the property, by some [illegible] far below the first actual cost. Whatever liable to happen in the case of this [illegible] tract of land must be judged by [illegible] but considering the steady and [illegible] vance on real estate in this city and [illegible] hood and at East Portland and [illegible] last year or two, it [illegible] hardly [illegible] values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all property [illegible] tions seem to have been taken to guard [illegible] monopolies of shares. No person is allowed to buy more than the number of shares [illegible] three blocks, or twenty-four lots, and [illegible] terminating the operations of the A[illegible] [illegible] restricted in the same manner. The [illegible] shares may pay down $50 per share, which exempt them from all [illegible] [illegible] pay $15 quarterly with an [illegible] share, payable with the first installment [illegible] liable in this latter case to another (and only to other) assessment of $[illegible] per share. Upon the payment of the shares in full, with [illegible] as above, the holder is entitled to [illegible] and his proportion of all the profits [illegible] all sources. No officer of the Association [illegible] any pay for services except the [illegible] gets $25 per month, so [illegible] expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the [illegible] a high plateau, nearly level, about [illegible] above the water. There is no part [illegible] row of blocks but commands a [illegible] Portland and the river for miles [illegible] stream. That part of the tract lying along the railroad is, every foot of it, of the richest [illegible] soil and adapted to gardening purposes [illegible] tiful little stream of pure water runs through almost the entire length of this [illegible] affording the means of irrigation, and [illegible] ficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract. There is not a waste lot or [illegible] lot in the entire tract. Under all these advantages it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to shareholders [illegible] year each shareholder if he [illegible] may get perfect title to as many lots [illegible] represent or he may continue his interest [illegible] vided with the Association while the [illegible] tion may exist.—Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

We have been led to make these [illegible] fact that the subject of making [illegible] skirts of this city and East Portland, is [illegible] dis ussed here among all classes, and one [illegible] Riverside, just south of East [illegible] been established. The site [illegible] ing a little over a mile south of the ferry [illegible] shaped like the letter H, one side of which, [illegible] in length borders on the river

From this portion of the [illegible] [illegible] a trifle above the other prong of the H, [illegible] forty or fifty feet above the river [illegible] sive view of Portland East Portland [illegible] the Willamette river for several miles. The [illegible] [illegible] and is partly covered with [illegible] tract of land just wide enough for [illegible] will answer be between them, [illegible] of the H which has already been [illegible] [illegible] it is a fast tract of land is [illegible] valley which is now under a high state of cultivation. Through the whole length runs a brook, [illegible] [illegible] as crystal. With a hydraulic ram [illegible] Association propose to have water conveyed through pipes to every portion of the [illegible]
